TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF THE

QUESNELLE QUARTZ MINING COMPANY (LIMITED.)

THE DIRECTORS OF THE QUESNELLE QUARTZ Mining Company at the end of their term of office submit the following report for your consideration:—

During the mining season of 1879 a shaft was sunk on No. 2 location to a depth of 114 feet from the surface, the size of the shaft being 7 ft. by 3½ ft. in the clear. The shaft runs through rock which had to be blasted the entire distance. It has been thoroughly timbered throughout and is secure and commodious.
At 100 ft. from the surface a cross-drive 5 ft. by 3½ ft. in the clear was run. At a distance of 33 ft. from the shaft it cut into a body of quartz, on which a level was run 20 ft. The quartz extracted was found to be much broken and mixed with bedrock, doubtless caused by the movement of the country rock which has apparently broken and disintegrated the vein at that level.
A 5-stamp quartz mill has been purchased and erected, the cost of which was greatly enhanced by the unavoidable expense and difficulty attached to moving heavy machinery for a distance of 30 miles through a rough country where no roads or trails existed.
Forty tons of quartz were worked in the mill producing 108 ounces of bullion, which sold for $1256 67.
Good and substantial buildings have been erected over all the works.
The directors are of opinion that it is advisable to sink the shaft at least 200 ft. deeper before running any cross-drifts. To accomplish this it will be necessary to place steam power on the mine; they therefore recommend that the funds of the Company be first devoted to that purpose and that arrangements be made for the purchase of engine and pumps of the requisite capacity, and to place them on the ground with as little delay as possible.
The improvements made by the Dominion Government in the Cottonwood Canon will enable boats capable of carrying machinery to reach a point within 9 miles of the mine; a road thence to the mine could be constructed, which would enable machinery to be placed on the ground at a reasonable cost.
The accounts of the Company have been carefully audited; an abstract thereof is herewith given:

From the foregoing it will be seen that there are debts or liabilities owing by the company.
The property of the company is estimated at $10,346 46, a sum that would not exceed the cost of replacing it under favorable circumstances.
Since work was suspended last fall everything at the mine has been under the charge of a caretaker at an expense of $75, the only other expense incurred during the last winter being those necessary for advertising, etc, the secretary having performed the duties of his office without remuneration. Neither the auditors nor directors are or were under pay at any time.

THE "EDINBURGH REVIEW" ON GREAT BRITAIN AND RUSSIA IN THE PACIFIC.

The current number of the Edinburgh Review has a paper which deals with great force and perspicuity upon the naval resources of Great Britain and Russia in the Pacific. The growth of Russian power on the Pacific is traced from the date of the discovery of the Amoor river in 1644 to the present, time and it is shown that the Russians possess on the Siberian coast an uninterrupted stretch of 700 miles, indented with frequent good harbors easily defensible. For years past vague accounts have appeared in the English press of the establishment of a great naval depot at Vladivostok. As that place stands, we may say, in the same position on the west coast of the Pacific that Victoria, B. C., occupies on the east, we have a new point of contact between Great Britain and Russia. It would thus appear that if the latter power persists, as she evidently will, in creating a great naval depot on the one side, the former must inevitably do the same at Vancouver, for it is evident that Russia aims at nothing less than the control of the Pacific. Vladivostok or the "Dominion of the East," as it is called in Russia, lies in the deep bight formed in the coast line some 70 or 80 miles from the mouth of the Tumen River. The harbor is described as one of the finest in the world. There is an outer and an inner anchorage called the Eastern Bosphorus and Golden Horn—names that possibly express the ambition that failing in one direction had found fruition in another. The Golden Horn is about three miles long and not much above half a mile wide. The largest ships can ride within a few yards of the shore. The peculiar form of the port renders its defence by means of torpedoes and batteries easy. These precautions have been taken, and the garrison strengthened notably within the last year. A dockyard has also been established. The harbor is frozen over from late in December to the middle of February. The soil in the neighborhood is fertile, beautifully wooded and coal of a superior quality abounds. By way of the Soifun there is almost direct river communication with the Amoor, which opens far into the interior. The climate of the region is compared to that of Canada. For years there has been a line of telegraph entirely on Russian territory from St. Petersburg to Vladivostok, so that officials on the Pacific are in possession of news of what is transpiring in Europe many days before it reaches the commanders of English and other western squadrons, who have no such means of telegraphic communication with their [illegible] at home. This demonstrates the necessity of a trans-continental telegraph through Canada and the formation of a naval depot in British Columbia. Other nations beside British and Russia hold possessions on the Pacific, but these are all isolated whilst those of Russia are in direct, unassailable connection with the rest of the Empire. The naval strength concentrated at Vladivostok till recently numbered 25 sea-going cruisers, of moderate size, and nearly 20 transports, gunboats and river steamers. These have been considerably reinforced, and one of the latest pieces of intelligence received concerning this portion of the Russian navy is that five vessels of large dimensions are to be added to it. It is further said that rapid steamers, purchased by patriotic societies, have been employed to run regularly between Odessa and Vladivostok, and remain out, should their presence in the East be desirable. It will thus be seen that Russia possesses a base of operations on the Pacific that gives her a vast advantage. England, on the other hand, must rely principally on the Dominion of Canada as a base. The harbors of British Columbia, open the year round are every way superior to those of Russia while the proximity of coal of the best quality renders Vancover the natural naval headquarters of Britain on the Pacific. The Ottowa Free Press remarks on the above that "The value of the Dominion to the Empire is thus made evident, and the necessity of the Imperial Government aiding this country in making the most of the advantages it possesses more than ever apparent. War with Russia may be remote, but it is not an improbable event, and for such a contingency England should prepare by establishing a strong naval station on the Pacific cost of the Dominion.

THE NATIONAL POLICY.

Unofficial but approximately correct figures furnished by the Eastern papers show the financial results of the working of the National Policy during the past two years. In these figures we find that, exclusive of British Columbia, in 1877-78 the Dominion imported $88,873,301 worth of merchandise on which there were paid duties that aggregated $12,346,303. In 1879-80 the Dominion imported $69,964,223 worth of goods on which were paid duties amounting to $13,655,489. It will be seen that the total imports of the Dominion, exclusive of British Columbia, show a decrease of $18,909,078 in value for 1879-80 as compared with 1877-78, the principal decrease being in free goods. Notwithstanding this decrease in value, the duty derived shows an increase of $1,409,185.38. In 1878-79 the total imports were $77,361,535 and the duty collected $12,417,653. The finance minister stated in 1879, when delivering his budget speech, that he expected to derive $2,000,000 additional revenue under the new tariff, and if the customs revenue collected in British Columbia (some $500,000), be added to the above total for 1879-80 it will be seen that his estimate is nearly if not wholly covered by the results. The conclusion to be drawn from these figures is, that while the volume of imports decreased nearly $19,000,000 in value in one year the revenue shows an increase of about $1,900,000. In other words, while $19,000,000 less has been spent by Canadians in the purchase of foreign goods in one year, (the deficiency being made up in the increased consumption of homemade and grown goods,) the chasm that in former years existed between revenue and expenditure has been bridged and the day of big deficits in the budgets has passed away. We cannot but say that the results of eighteen months' working of the National Policy are satisfactory and that the not unreasonable anticipations of Sir LEONARD TILLEY have been fully met.

THE POLICE.

Councillor MCLEAN has brought forward an important motion which, if passed, will recommend the government to remove the city police entirely from the control of the provincial government. It has long been felt that the power exercised by the government to control the movements of municipal policemen and force them to perform duty beyond the city limits was unfair to the citizens who pay them and for whose protection the force was instituted. The divided responsibilities and powers of the superintendent of police have also been unfavorably commented upon and the opinion is gaining ground that the municipal and provincial policemen should be entirely distinct bodies, each with a chief of its own and each responsible to the body from whom it derives its appointment. At present the city council enjoy the luxury of appointing and paying policemen, and are liable at any moment to have them sent away on provincial duty. We hope that the recommendation will be adopted.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

EUROPE.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—A meeting of the conservative members of the houses of lords and commons was held at the Carlton Club yesterday to consider the state of public business and bills yet to come before the house of lords. Strong opinions were expressed against considering important government measures such as the employers' liability and hares and rabbits bills at such a late period of the session. The general feeling was that the house of lords ought not to consent to deal with all bills yet remaining for consideration.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The celebrated actress, Mrs. Chas. Kean, (Ellen Tree) who retired from the stage on the death of her husband, is dead.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Lloyds' agent at St. [illegible] as it was expected, under date of the 21st instant that one of the missing boats containing several men and five bags of mail matter from the steamer American of the Cape of Good Hope and Southampton line, which foundered April 28th near the equator, was picked up by the Portuguese brig Tarajo.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 21.—The Queen, princess Beatrice, the prince and princess of Wales and prince Leopold inspected the rifle brigade on board the troopship Jumna before its departure for Afghanistan to-day. Great enthusiasm was shown by a large crowd of spectators.

BERLIN, Aug. 21.—The czar will receive Chinese and Japanese embassadors on Saturday at Rapsha, near Krasnoeselo, where he is now witnessing army manœuvers. This interview will virtually re-open Kuldja negotiations.

BELGRADE, Aug. 22.—The Servian government is seeking 100,000 rifles of the newest pattern in America, deliverable before the end of this year.

GENEVA, Aug. 22.—A journal published here entitled the United States of Europe, contains a letter from Herr Buehler, a member of the German parliament, to the president of the international league of peace and liberty, and the president's reply thereto. Herr Buehler expresses the idea that in order to dispel distrust of the German people, to insure the preservation of peace, France ought spontaneously to put forth a manifesto pronouncing clearly in favor of peace. The president replies that France cannot thus ratify the conquest of Alsace-Lorraine, and moreover that such declaration on her part would be null in effect, because Alsace-Lorraine itself should be asked whether she desires to be German, French or autonomous. France and Germany ought to agree to accept her answer to this question as decisive. The president advises Herr Buehler to recommend this course to Prince Bismarck.

ROME, Aug. 20.—In the consistory to-day the pope pronounced his allocution. After enumerating the grievances of the church in Belgium, his holiness declared that he was quite prepared to suffer personal insult in behalf of the holy see, but would never allow the apostolic dignity of the papacy to be insulted, even though its defense might cost him his life.

VIENNA, Aug. 21.—A telegram from Belgrade reports that since Prince Milan's journey to Ischt the resignation of M. Ristic's cabinet has become inevitable and henceforth adhesion of Servia in a military sense to the Austro-German alliance is looked upon as settled.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 21.—Orders have been given for the immediate repair of the forts at the Black Sea entrance to the Bosphorus.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The News understands that although Mr. Forster's visit to Ireland was undertaken for the purpose of inquiring into the condition of the country, the government has no reason to believe that the necessity exists, or is likely to arise, for any exceptional legislation.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The Times' Paris correspondent confirms the opinion that M. De Freycinette's new bill may lead to a ministerial crisis.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 24.—Competent authorities say that the Russian harvest is the worst since the famine of 1873.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—A dispatch from Cairo says that it is believed that the Egyptian cotton crop will be 22,500,000 pounds less than that of 1879, and about fifteen days late.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 24.—Goshen, British ambassador, has communicated to the porte a telegram from the British consul at Scutari announcing that the Albanians are preparing to resist the surrender of territory to Montenegro. The diplomatic body at Constantinople are convinced of the sincerity of the porte in offering to cede Dulcigno, but doubt its ability to do so.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Land meetings were held Sunday in various parts of Ireland, but nothing noteworthy occurred. The proceedings were orderly. The usual violent speeches were made.

The chief secretary for Ireland, in the house of commons to-day, stated that the government did not think it necessary to ask for exceptional powers for the preservation of peace and protection of life and property in Ireland. They do not know, he said, whether they can rely during the coming autumn and winter upon the common law.

There has been much less excitement in Ireland during the last four days owing to extremely good accounts from the harvest. In two-thirds of the area from north to south throughout the central districts, harvest is in full operation, and the demand for labor is excessively brisk.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 21.—There is no doubt that Abdurahman Khan's assistance to Ayoob Khan had not been withdrawn at the time of the recent British defeat. It is learned from a good source that Russia has ordered communication to be made to Abdurrahman Khan advising him on no account to interfere with the English withdrawal from Cabul. If he does not observe these counsels he will forfeit the sympathy and good opinion of Russia.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Lord Charles Henry Vonder Pfardter, an eminent German lawyer, is dead.

London, Aug. 23.—At to-day's wool sales the spirit was fully sustained and rates were firm.

BERLIN, Aug. 23.—The North German Gazette in an article on Gambetta's utterances at Cherbourg on the 9th inst. points out that the declarations of the present and M. De Freycinette at Ditnon and Montaubau afford most welcome and satisfactory assurance that the speech of Gambetta must not be taken as an expresssion of the opinion of the country, but merely of Gambetta himself. The article proceeds to illustrate the idea of justice as invoked by Gambetta, which is founded upon the wars of spoliation waged by Louis XIV. against Germany when she was weakened by internal dissensions.

Mr. Heap, American consul general, has delivered a note to the porte demanding that the murderers of Rev. Mr. Parsons be brought to Pera immediately to be tried.

PERA, Aug. 24.—The porte has received a note from M. Novikoff, Russian ambassador, insisting upon the execution of Col. Comeroff's assassin.

ATHENS Aug. 23.—Thirty Turkish officers, who had deserted their own flag, to-day had an audience with the Greek war minister, whom they asked for commissions. They deserted from the Turkish service because they are not paid. It is alleged that whole battalions are ready to desert if pay is not guaranteed.

LONDON. Aug 24— The house of commons this evening went into committee on the estimates. O' Donnell, home ruler for Dungarvan, moved a resolution against granting money for the maintenance of the Irish constabulary. There is general apprehension of a protracted sitting and some predict that it will take 24 hours

The Times says: —Should the Irish peasantry be tempted to force against the law and should their refusal to pay rents be supported by an organization of murderous terrorism, it will be the duty of the ministry, at whatever cost and however reluctantly, to apply to parliament for the most efficient and repressive authority.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—At Hammersmith police court to-day James Donovan, footman, was charged with sending a letter to Lord Oranmore, threatening him with death if he further advocated the cause of the Irish landlords. Lord Oranmore recently wrote a communication respecting events in Ireland. The prisoner was remanded and bail refused.

The attorney general has consented to the Tichborne writ of error being submitted to the house of lords.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—It is stated that £5000 are already on hand to back Trickett, Australian, in his rowing match with Hanlan.

LONDON, Aug. 23—In the house of commons Mitchell Henry moved adjournment or the purpose of raising debate on the use of buckshot by police at Dungannon, which he strongly denounced. Forster said that the government was responsible for that action. It had authorized the use of buckshot as more humane than ball. The police only fired upon and charged the rioters when absolutely necessary. If they had not done so Dungannon would have been sacked. Sir Patarick O'Brien, liberal, and T. Finnegan O'Donnell and Parnell, home rulers, protested against the use of buckshot. Parnell hoped that Forster would rescind the order which in the case of Dungannon had a most unfortunate result.

John Dillon, home ruler, moved adjournment in order to give Forster an opportunity to explain his recent language. Dillon said: I do not mind being called coward and imposter, but I object to an accusation of deliberate wickedness because I advise resistance to a law which the government itself had called unjust yet continued to administer. I will repeat that advice to every land meeting in Ireland. Forster said that he had no explanation to make, but he adhered to every word he had uttered. Dillon had preached disobedience to a law which the government was determined to uphold. Forster added; Recent horrible outrages in Ireland show the barbarism to which speeches like Dillon's excite the people.

AFGHANISTAN.

Ayoob Khan has moved with his Heratese on the Kholat Ghilsai road to oppose Gen. Roberts.

An official dispatch dated Candahar Aug. 21st says: A sortie on the 16th inst. against a village on the east face of the city has secured us from further molestation on that side but our loss was heavy. Lieut. McLaine, missing since the battle of Kushki Nakid, is a prisoner in Ayoob Khan's hands. The enemy throws a shell into the city occasionally, and sharpshooters do but little harm.

A letter of the 20th from Tanner, commanding at Khelat Ighilsai, was received this morning saying: We have heard from Roberts to-day. He is four miles off and will be here on the 24th inst.

In a sortie from Candahar Brigadier Gen. Brock, Col. Newport, Major French, Capt. Cruikshank and three lieutenants were killed. Three officers were severely wounded and 180 men killed. The enemy's artillery and sharp-shooters are constantly active.

QUETTA, Aug. 21.—Gen. Phayre has sent a messenger to Kyotata Ghilzai with a dispatch giving Gen. Robert's details of the enemy's position at Candahar and a proposed plan for a combined action between two relieving columns. Native reports say that many Heratees and tribesmen have deserted Ayoob Khan because they wished to attack Candahar immediately, whereas Ayoob refused on the ground he had not enough scaling ladders.

SIMLA, Aug. 21.—Gen. Stuart's headquarters have been established at Jellalabad. All is well with his command and the country is quiet.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—A dispatch from Quettah says that natives report that Ayoob Khan is not only raising works against Candahar, but is entrenching his own position, and intends to give battle when the reinforcing column arrives.

A dispatch from Jellalabad says that events for the past six months show the uselessness of Kurum fort for influencing the military or political situation at Cabul. The eight thousand troops here might as well have been at Malta There has been a severe fight at Pesewon, many killed on both sides. At last accounts the ameer was still at Shirpur. Muskialum was daily preaching on his behalf. On the whole the situation in Northern Afghanistan was satisfactory.

CALCUTTA, Aug. 23.—Troops in Kurum valley will not be withdrawn for the present. The question of permanent occupation of that valley is still undecided, but the balance of opinions seems against its retention.

SIMLA, Aug. 22.—It is reported from Quettah that the Candahar garrison has made a sortie inflicting heavy losses on the Herats. The number of British casualties is unknown. It is believed that the tribes north of Khojok pass have collected to attack communications with Pishir.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The Post this evening says: A number of Chinese students now in the United States will soon be sent back to China on account of offenses which they have committed. Among them is T. C. Chung, an excellent young man who was graduated in the class of '79 at Norwich, Conn., free academy, and who is dishonored for having cut off his queue.

Dispatches to the Times from various points in the great corn belt show that the crop has been been seriously damaged by drought.

READING, Pa., Aug., 23. — Great sensation has been caused throughout Berks county by the discovery of Benjamin Zechier, a lunatic who had been confined in a house in Albany township by his brother, Jacob Zechler, for 27 years. He was chained to the floor in a small house built especially for him and in a room about eight feet square, with only one window for ventilation.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 21.—Edwin C. Mix, jr., aged thirty-two was killed by the three Derance brothers, Ferdinand, Armand and Henry, aged twenty-five, twenty and eighteen respectively. The Derances were imprisoned. They declare that Mix flirted with their young sister. Although warned he had not desisted, but continued to follow the young lady. Mix, with his brother, Franklin Mix, went to the residence of the Derances to explain the matter, both unarmed. They failed, however, to convince the Derances, and when leaving were followed to the street, where two of the brothers opened fire upon Edwin C. Mix. He attempted to flee, but was shot down, when Henry, the youngest of the Derance brothers, ran up and stabbed him several times with a dirk. Mix leaves a wife and widowed mother. His brother Franklin, who was present at the killing, was on the 12th inst. married to a daughter of the late Gen. Harry L. Hayes. The Derances are the sons of the late Dr. Henry Derance, one of the prominent physicians of this city.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Yesterday laborers excavating for a sewer in Wicker Park in the northwestern part of the city, came upon the petrified remains of a mastodon at the depth of eighteen feet. Among the pieces already secured is one of the teeth measuring four inches in diameter at one end and six inches at the other end and weighing six pounds.

LOWELL, Mass., Aug. 33.—People ten miles distant on the Misginnum river were horrified to find yesterday morning that twin children of John Farley had been drowned in a tub of water during the night. The father and mother were arrested. The children were only a month old. The parents are very poor, and Farley is given to drink. They both deny the crime, but Farley says that he believes that his wife drowned the babes. They have three other children.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Mr. P. Lorillard's horses arrived here to-day on the steamship Helvetia from Liverpool. They are five in number and include Parole, Falsetto and Wallenstein.

Fearn beat Capt. Boynton in the swimming match to-day.

BUFFALO, Aug. 24.—Gen. Albert Myer of the signal service is dead.

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 21.—There is intense excitement in the city and community over the expected duel between Capt. James Baron Hope, editor of the Norfolk Landmark, a distinguished writer and journalist, and Col. Wm. Lamb, mayor of Norfolk, elector on the readjusted Hancock and English electoral ticket and a politician of note.

NORFOLK, Aug. 21.—The duel between Hope and Mayor Lamb was prevented by the arrest of the mayor as he was leaving his house for the place of meeting at 4 o'clock this morning.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—The trial of Dr. L. P. Chalfant, for the murder of Josiah Bacon, agent of a rubber company, of Boston, a year ago last April, commenced in the superior court to-day.

The directors of the state prison have contracted with an English firm for machinery for a jute factory of one hundred looms, which it is estimated will turn out the first year five million sacks, while the product can be increased after the first year.

At the auction of 100 bales of wheat bags, advertised for to-day, five bales sold at 10 2-10 cents. The remainder were withdrawn.

The Assizes.

[Before Chief Justice Sir Mathew Baillie Begbie.]

THURSDAY, Aug. 26.

Court opened at 11:20 a.m.

The Queen vs. Oldenburg was the first case called.

A jury being empanelled Mr. W. Arthur was chosen foreman.

The Chief Justice inquired if the witnesses in the Raper case were ready?

Mr. T. Davie on behalf of the Crown stated that the prosecution would be ready to-morrow and suggested an early meeting so that if possible the case might be completed during the day.

His Lordship thought that the Court should meet at 9 a.m. Friday to commence the Raper case.

The jurors not in the Oldenburg case were here discharged till 1:30 p.m.

The prisoner pleaded not guilty on the charge of receiving goods knowing them to have been stolen.

Mr. Harrison for the Crown stated the case to the jury and explained the nature of offences of this description. It was always difficult for the prosecution to bring forward direct evidence in such cases as the one before them. They must, therefore, judge of the offence from the circumstances surrounding it. A pawnbroker was expected to exercise great vigilance in receiving goods presented to him and he mentioned that in Great Britain there are a large number of statutes restricting and controlling this occupation. Those statutes had in a great measure been adopted in Canada.

Jacob Williams, on being sworn, deposed that he remembered stealing a valise from the Oriental Hotel some time in January last and taking it to Oldenburg's pawnbroker shop; it was opened with some difficulty in his presence; did not know what was in it; when it was opened, among other things there was a shirt with the name of Daly on it; the prisoner remarked that it was not witness' name; witness said it was all right; prisoner knew witness as there had been other dealings between them; got five dollars on the valise; the things were put back hurriedly as witness wanted to get away; the valise was then taken away by prisoner into the back room; intended to get all he could for it as he had no idea of returning for it; did ask for a pawn ticket and prisoner said it was unnecessary; paid no interest on the money obtained; there was nothing said about it; witness left when he obtained the money; was arrested soon after on the charge of stealing a valise from the Oriental Hotel; saw the prisoner after serving his time in gaol for stealing another valise.

To the Chief Justice—Had some talk with the prisoner about the charge that was brought against him in the Police Court; had served three months in gaol.

Cross-examined by Mr. Robertson, Q.C.—Witness had only been in town for a week; had been living on the American side; gave the name of John Woodbury; told Oldenburg that he had not been able to get any employment and in consequence believed he said that he was obliged to pawn his clothes; did not state that he had stolen the things (laughter); was to have the money till Monday; did not intend to redeem them; took another valise the day following, which he took to another place on Store street; was arrested and tried on both charges, but convicted on one of them; was notified a week ago that he would be required as a witness; he objected to stating whether or not he was in gaol in New Westminster (laughter); had been with Mr. Moresby about seven weeks; declined to state what he was with Mr. Moresby for; was brought down to give evidence and he intended to give it; declined to state whether he had been in gaol elsewhere; had not been tried yet at New Westminster; had not spoken to anybody about the present case nor had anybody spoken to him about it; had some idea that he would be called upon, but none of the officers had spoken to him.

Wm. McKeon saw the last witness coming down with a valise and soon found out that two valises were gone; recognized the valise now produced as belonging to Mr. Daly; went three or four times to Oldenburg's to enquire about the valise; prisoner said that he had not purchased or seen one; described the valise; the owner had told witness what the valise contained; prisoner said that no one had been there with a valise; the last witness had said where the valise was as well as he could, not having been in town long; told prisoner that the property had been stolen from a guest.

To Mr. Courtney, for the defence—Supposed that he had asked the prisoner whether a valise had been left there that morning.

Constable Lindsay corroborated the evidence of last witness and further stated that on the Saturday he went with a search warrant; prisoner objected to a search as it was his Sabbath; finally the valise was produced from the back room; Daly was present and did not immediately recognize the valise, but did so when it was opened.

To Mr. Robertson—As soon as the name of Woodbury was mentioned prisoner said that a valise had been left there by him.

Sergeant O'Connor testified that he had recovered a gun from the prisoner that had been stolen in December last; prisoner could not remember whether a gun had been pledged or not; witness told the prisoner that it was no use beating about the bush as the boy was in custody who had stolen it, and he had stated where it had been pledged for $2; the gun was afterwards produced.

Sergeant Bloomfield stated that some of the things had been given to the owner by permission of the Superintendent of Police.

The Chief Justice said that the articles should not have been given up. If necessary two or ten dollars should have been supplied Mr. Daly and the articles retained.

This closed the case for the prosecution.

Mr. Harrison, in summing up, considered that his opening statement to the jury had been fully substantiated by the evidence produced. There were certainly two very suspicious circumstances connected with the affair. Williams or Woodbury could not open the valise and when opened by Oldenburg the party attempting to pawn the valise did not know what it contained. The whole transaction had been conducted in a most irregular manner. He reviewed the evidence at some length and considered that it was amply sufficient to procure a conviction.

Mr. Robertson, for the defence, fully concurred in the closing remarks of the learned counsel who had just sat down that crime should be repressed and that guilt should be punished. He should review the case dispassionately and he hoped to convince the jury that it would be their duty to acquit the prisoner. The character of Williams was such that no dependence could be placed upon his evidence. The Crown must have been convinced from the commencement that the case was a very weak one. What evidence is there that the valise was stolen? The supposed owner was not here to identify the property. Several other articles had been disposed of and could not be produced. Much had been said by the learned counsel about the business of a pawnbroker. It was a lawful business here for which a heavy tax was paid and was a very useful one. The learned counsel reviewed the evidence at some length and contended that it would have been very wrong for the prisoner to expose his business matters to the police. He animadverted severely on the character of the witness Williams who had been in gaol more than five months out of the seven that he had been in the province. That evidence was worthless and should be discarded as it was not corroborated. The Crown has to prove that Oldenburg knew that the valise was stolen. What are the facts? Williams got all the money he could on the valise. There was a grain of truth in the learned counsel's statement respecting the duties of pawnbrokers and he adduced instances where pawnbrokers should be very careful as to how they received property offered. There was nothing suspicious in the fact that Williams had asked for money on things which he represented as his own. The learned counsel did not wish to impute motives to Williams but his whole manner went far to show animus on his part against Oldenburg. There was nothing about the valise out of the common—no special mark by which to distinguish it from others, and it might easily have been considered as belonging to the party desiring to pledge it. The objection of Oldenburg to a search of his premises on his sabbath was perfectly legitimate. When Woodbury's name was mentioned the valise was at once produced. This did not manifest any desire to evade a full investigation of the affair. The prisoner had no notion of putting anything out of the way. This he might easily have done. Everything had been produced when called for. The conduct of Oldenburg all through was that of an innocent man. The Crown wished to show that a gun had been pledged some time before. With that they had nothing to do. They should take into consideration all the circumstances of the case and by doing so they would return with a verdict of not guilty.

The Chief Justice in charging the jury said that there were two or three things that the jury should decide; and if they had any doubt the prisoner should have the benefit of it. The jury would have to decide whether or not the valise had been stolen. The evidence on this point was, he thought, conclusive. Of course the Crown had been very remiss in not producing Mr. Daly, and for allowing some of the articles to be disposed of. The jury must be fully satisfied that the prisoner knew the property to have been stolen. The unfortunate circumstances surrounding Williams were such that corroboration was necessary; one statement was certainly corroborated by the prisoner's trial. The learned judge continued to review the evidence very carefully directing the jury that they should not place thorough credence in Williams' testimony unless where it was corroborated by other witnesses. He referred to the excuse made by the prisoner that he knew nothing about the valise because it had been pawned at 10 o'clock at night instead of as the police supposed at an early hour in the morning and pointed out to the jury that that could not be held as valid any more than the excuse that because Williams changed his name to Woodbury, therefore, he, the prisoner, had no knowledge of receiving the valise from Williams. The objection, too, raised by the prisoner to having his premises searched on Saturday because that day happened to be his day of worship was not justifiable, because if it were any person of the Hebrew persuasion would be entitled to claim Saturday as well as the Christian's Sunday on which to stow away good that might be stolen. But a search warrant could be issued and executed on any day of the week, so the prisoner's complaint was of no account at all. His Lordship having explained several other points directed the jury to retire to consider their verdict.

The jury then retired again and after an absence of 45 minutes returned to court when the foreman announced that they had found a verdict of "guilty of concealing the valise after the prisoner had been told that it had been stolen."

The Chief Justice—But that is not the offence for which the prisoner is indicted.

Mr. Robertson—The verdict is equivalent to one of "not guilty" your Lordship.

Mr. Harrison—Not at all.

The Chief Justice—The verdict is no verdict at all, as it is not sufficient for me to say whether the prisoner is guilty on the count or not.

Mr. Robertson—Will your Lordship let the verdict as returned be recorded?

The Chief Justice—It is no verdict. It is only a finding. I cannot therefore grant the application.

Mr. Robertson—Will your Lordship make a note of the fact that I apply for a record of the verdict.

The Chief Justice—Certainly, I will make the note. The jury must retire and bring in a verdict of either guilty or not guilty.

The jury then retired to reconsider their finding and the prisoner was forthwith arraigned on an indictment for misprison of felony to which he pleaded "not guilty."

A jury having been empanelled with Mr. Broughner as foreman, Mr. Harrison briefly stated that the indictment set forth that one Williams stole the valise referred to in the last case and that the prisoner subsequently became aware of the fact, but was guilty of concealing his knowledge from the authorities, thereby impeding the course of justice. The learned counsel then narrated the frequent applications by the police for the stolen valise at the prisoner's pawn-shop and the prisoner's denial of knowing anything at all about the valise until confronted by search warrant.

Jacob Williams was then placed in the witness box but before he had completed his evidence which, so far as it went, was substantially the same as that given by him in the former case, the jury empanelled on the first count entered the courtroom and the foreman announced that they had arrived at a verdict of "guilty."

The Chief Justice said that they had performed their duty like men and thanked them for their services. Then, addressing Mr. Harrison, his Lordship asked him what he intended to do relative to the second count. The Crown could enter a nolle prosequi.

A brief consultation having taken place between counsel Mr. Harrison announced that the Crown would enter a nolle prosequi.

The Chief Justice—The prisoner will be remanded into custody for sentence.

Mr. Courtney—The prisoner is on bail, your lordship.

The Chief Justice—I am aware of it, but I order that he be placed in custody. Jurymen as well as witnesses in the Raper case will be granted a holiday until to-morrow (Friday) morning at 9 o'clock.

Municipal Police Court.

[Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.]

THURSDAY, Aug. 26.

Four Indians charged with being drunk and disorderly admitted the offence and were fined $1 25 each.

Four lads, the eldest of whom was 15 and the youngest 11 years of age, were charged with unlawfully entering the premises of Mr. E. Mallandaine, liberating a number of fowls from the roost and killing one of them.

Sergt. Bloomfield said that the complainant did not wish to press the charge on this occasion.

His Honor—What character do the boys bear; have they been in Court before?

Sergt. Bloomfield said that three of them had been before his Honor on previous charges, details of which would be found on the record.

His Honor then turned to the record and found that one had been charged with breaking a window and stealing, another with shooting a dog and the third with assaulting a Chinaman by throwing stones at him. The latter had been fined $10, but in default of payment had been sent to gaol for a month.

His Honor, addressing the lads, said he believed them to be a thoroughly bad set. Something must be done to stop them in the course they were at present pursuing. He could not punish them on this occasion because the prosecutor did not appear against them, but his Honor felt that they ought to be punished. The Act gave him power, if they had been convicted, to send them to prison for three months or fine them each $100, and he would like to know where anyone of them would get enough money to pay that fine. It seemed to him that they had made up their minds to pass the rest of their days in prison or, perhaps, to come to the gallows. He did not know what to do with them; but next time they appeared in Court his Honor would take care they were severely punished.

Sergt. Bloomfield said that if their parents would take the trouble to send them to school they would be kept off the streets and out of mischief for a portion of the day at least.

His Honor thought that they ought to go to school, or perhaps there would be a chance of getting the navy to take them. They would be discharged now, but he would caution them as to their conduct in the future.

THE EARTHQUAKE was slightly felt at Burrard Inlet. News from the islands in the gulf report a severe shaking up. The N. W. Herald claims to have felt a slight tremor, but as no one else experienced it we are reluctantly forced to the opinion that the sectional pride of the Herald has for once got the better of its veracity. Victoria would appear to enjoy a monopoly of all good things, not excepting earthquakes.

Yale.

The vegetable crop, particularly melons, water and musk, potatoes and onions, also the orchard fruit, beats anything they have seen for the last 18 years in the vicinity of Yale. Mr. Seward's neighbors, he says, are equally fortunate; when the water melons come down I will send you a sample. If you remember the Yale of some years ago, you will know that Mrs. John McCully, then of Lytton, got the prize for water melons; that melon was raised by Mr. F. Seward.

Almost all the houses that were burnt down are built up, and many of them doing business; Romano's new house is under contract, and will soon be completed. The agitation which convulsed the burg has cooled down to what might be considered a comparative calm, till the next periodical visit of old Bacchus.—Guardian cor.

MONTREAL, Aug. 7.—A gentleman has been in the city looking up tailors for a large establishment at London, Ont., and notwithstanding his offers to pay expenses thither and to give good wages, he has succeeded in finding but eleven men. He was looking for a large party, but believes he will be unable to get them.

The contractors for section 11 of the Lachine canal have raised the wages of their men, and are now paying their labourers $1.10 per day, horses and carts $1.50, and teams $3.

A verdict of manslaughter has been returned by an English coroner's jury on a curious bit of circumstantial evidence. Hannah Catlin, wife of Mr. M. R. Catlin, of Holly Lodge, Bedfont, London, was found burnt to death on the 13th of July. Appearances showed that she had been dead for some days, and as Mr. Catlin had been at home it was asked why he had not sent for assistance. He says his wife had probably burnt herself on the 8th ult. by upsetting a benzoline lamp, but that he knew nothing about the matter, as he had been ill, and had stupified himself with laudanum to keep down the pain. Unfortunately for him, however, somebody with eyes noticed that a twenty-four hour clock in the kitchen and have wound up the clock. He was, therefore, in possession of his faculties and power of locomotion. The coroner's jury found a verdict of manslaughter against him.

"Can nobody," says the London Spectator, "suggest a stiff bit of work for English capitalists to do? They are standing idle in heaps, and they do not like it at all. According to the Statist of the 17 th ult., a sum of money estimated at £200,000,000, or say nearly three years' revenue, is lying waiting for the profitable investment which it is so difficult to find, and although the figure may be an exaggeration—we see no reason for thinking so—it is certain that the total sum available for new forms of enterprise must be very large."

London Spectotor:—"The Czar, even if he were ready for war, could not fight for the Ottoman domination. He could not trust his own soldiers, or his own peasants, or his own priesthood, if he did. The Hapsburg cannot quarrel à outrance with the Slavs, whose bayonets saved him in 1848. Prince Bismark is not going for the sake of Turkey, to insolate Germany and enable all Europe to declare that she prospects barbarism against civilization, Asia against Europe, and that, too, after he has signed a decision to the precisely contrary effect. The Western Powers are not about to put the whole world in the crucible by quarrelling among themselves about Turkey."

KINGSTON, Aug. 12.—The captain of a schooner reports that when 75 miles from Kingston he observed what appeared to be a large boat floating bottom upwards. On reaching the place he found it was a yacht, measuring about ten tons, which had been upset, with all her rigging standing and sails set. An American flag floated at her mast-head, and on her was painted the name Phœnix, but there was nothing to show where or to whom she belonged. Capt. Keene brought her to Kingston.

A man named Buell was fatally injured during a row at the Brockville fireman's excursion on Monday. He died Wednesday afternoon.

Two young men who three weeks ago married two sisters were drowned a few days ago in a tributary of Lake St. John, while bathing.

It is claimed that the new passenger train lately placed on the Great Northern Railway of England makes the most rapid speed of any in the world. The trip from London to Leeds, a distance of 176 miles, is accomplished in three and three-quarter hours—an average rate of forty-nine miles an hour.

THE school holidays being over the boys and girls will again be seen meandering the streets with their telltale school satchels, stuffed with what they have to cram into their heads. We have anticipated this event and are provided with both the casket and the stuffing.

War Declared Between the New York Original Singer Sewing Machine W. H. Adams, Agent, and the Bogus Imitation Article Hawked about Town.

To protect the public from being taken in and done for by the claptrap posters round the city, puffing up the "Imitation Singer Sewing Machine" as being better and cheaper than "The original New York Singer Machine," for the sale of which I am the sole agent in British Columbia, I, W. H. Adams, feel it a duty I owe to the community to tell them we are determined not to be beat, or to have our position cut from under us by attempted competition from inferior machines made only for sale, the work of unprincipled makers, and offered at tempting but deceptive prices to catch customers.

The cheap imitation Singers that the agent asks $40 for are everywhere else sold for $25, and dear at that figure. We take our stand as the agents for the sale of "The original New York Singer Sewing Machine" in the fullest confidence, as requiring no low puffing on every corner of the streets of our city, or its inhabitants to be dunned to cause forced sales. We stick to our colors, not like our opponent in Fort street one month cracking up "Osborne A" as the "real Simon Pure," and all perfection; another month that "The American" is the "real jam," then "The Wilson," all of which machines are now shelved, or broken up for old iron. The Fort street man having discovered that he made a slight mistake in past praise of worthless machines has now the audacity to expect the public will believe his last yarn about this imitation Singer being the best thing out. Doubtless, so far as he is concerned, what with its inferior workmanship, and cheap and trashy getting up, it is the best suited for him by which to gull and deceive the public to his advantage, but to their detriment.

N. B.—Those wanting a sewing machine that may be relied upon, and who are desirous of making a good and safe investment in the purchase, will please note that there is always a choice selection on hand at the depôt of NEFF, 102 Bagg Street, Detroit, Mich., certifies that it completely cured him of a chronic liver complaint after numerous other remedies had failed. These are abbreviated sample testimonials.

Prof. GREEN, an eminent allopathic physician of the South, recommended in the Medical Record that all physicians administer this remedy for Kidney Diseases in preference to any thing else. R. CAULKINS, M. D., of Rochester, N.Y., says he would prescribe the remedy to all whose Kidneys and Liver are badly affected. The Richmond and Louisville Medical Journal said it had done more for the cure of Kidney Diseases than any other remedy.

CHAMPION PORTABLE SAWMILLS
George Book writes, St Anns, Ontario, June 17th, 1879, regarding his 10 horse power Champion Sawmill: "Last week, on Monday morning, three men of us commenced to tear up mill and move it, we tore up, moved three miles, set it up and on Tuesday at three o'clock sawed a log with it. Not quite two days. In one week we moved and set it up as mentioned, and sawed twenty thousand feet. I will write full particulars soon. We sawed six hundred feet in twenty-nine minutes—inch lumber." Three sizes built—12 H.P. using 44 in. saw, capacity 3 to 4000 per day. 16 H. P. using 48 in. saw, Capacity 4 to 5000 per day. 20 H. P. using 52 in saw, No. 3 saw irons. Capacity 5 to 8000 per day.

WHITTAKER'S
HAMS! HAMS!
SUGAR CURED HAMS
THEIR WELL-KNOWN DELICIOUS TENDERness and flavor is secured by the old-fashioned SLOW CURING AND SMOKING PROCESS. In quality they rank next to Heywood's Royal Standard.
DON'T BE IMPOSED UPON
By cheaper brands with which we cannot compete in price. Our Hams give satisfaction every time, and are 60 per cent. cheaper, when quality is considered, than many Hams offered you by some grocers who sell cheaper goods without reputation, so as to make a larger profit.
I am in weekly receipt of WHITTAKER'S CELEBRATED HAMS, and will sell them to the trade in lots to suit, at the price of ordinary Hams.
